

WorkSafeBC Releases New OHS Policies-Combustible Wood Dust

The WorkSafeBC Board of Directors has approved three new Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) policies that take effect on September 1, 2014. The policies are directed to employers, workers and supervisors in relation to the hazards of combustible wood dust.

ASTTBC encourages Members to take note of the new WorkSafeBC policies and be governed accordingly.

View Press Release and Policies