

ASTTBC CEO Compares Notes with Nurses

ASTTBC CEO, John Leech (R) presenting carved eagle feather to Cynthia Johansen, Registrar CRNBC

Cynthia Johansen, Registrar of the College of Registered Nurses of BC (CRNBC) hosted ASTTBC CEO, John Leech at her office recently to compare notes on practice rights and the process for reviewing practices on a regular basis.

Leech had asked for the meeting as he has done for several years in order to stay current and look for best practices in dealing with changing circumstances. Of particular interest this visit was the impact and outcomes of the Premier's mandate letter to Minister Terry Lake, Minister of Health.

John presented Cynthia with an ASTTBC eagle feather carved by First Nations artist Len McKay.
