

Minister Wilkinson Speaks at ASTTBC Meeting in Prince George

The Hon Andrew Wilkinson, Minister of Advanced Education and Minister Responsible for the ASTT Act was the special guest speaker at an ASTTBC Member Meeting that took place in Prince George in January.

The Minister spoke about career pathways and the resources available through government to help British Columbians and new immigrants come to better understand their interests and the pathway to a rewarding career.

The Minister, installed in the Advanced Education portfolio in December 2014, was in Prince George to attend the Premier's Natural Resources Forum.
