

Technology Skills Appreciation Week On the Go!

Chris Ewing, ASCT, Engineering Technician at McElhanney's Courtenay Office with his ASTTBC Mug

As part of Technology Skills Appreciation Week; ASTTBC is recognizing the contribution the technology workforce makes to the province of BC with coffee mugs. ASTTBC staff was recently on the Island and popped into the Courtenay office of McElhanney Consulting Services Ltd. While there, they dropped off ASTTBC mugs for the technologists and technicians.

In Victoria, ASTTBC Council Member, Sarah Campden, CTech, RTMgr reached out to members on social media to distribute ASTTBC mugs.

Do you have ASTTBC members in your work place....email tsaw@asttbc.org and request some mugs for your office (while supplies last!)
