

ASTTBC Offers Congratulations to ACEC-BC

On September 25, 2013 The Association of Consulting Engineering Companies of BC (ACEC-BC) was awarded the 2013 Association Cornerstone of Excellence (ACE) Award for Government Affairs. The ACE Awards are presented annually by the Canadian Society of Association Executive – BC Chapter. The recipients of this Award are recognized for undertaking a key initiative on a single government affairs issue where highly focused activities result in a positive outcome.

ACEC-BC was honoured for their work on enabling and promoting significant amendments to the Limitations Act.

“I am sure I speak on behalf of all ASTTBC Members in congratulating Keith Sashaw, President, ACEC-BC and their Association for this well deserved recognition” stated John Leech, ASCT, CAE, ASTTBC Executive Director.
