Mayor of Campbell River Meets ASTTBC Members

Charlie Cornfield, Mayor of Campbell River, attended an ASTTBC member meeting early this spring to chat about issues such as economic growth and the role of ASTTBC members in contributing to the economy in northern Vancouver Island. Also attending was the Dean (Don Gillingham) and other reps from North Island College and the President of the Association of BC Forest Professionals, Ian Emery, AScT, RFT.

“While a small group of members, we had a lively discussion about the need for ASTTBC-registered technology professionals as we see a skills shortage looming on the horizon,” said ASTTBC Executive Director, John Leech.
