

November, 2011

ASTTBC's Executive Director Appointed to BC Housing Advisory Council

BC Housing CEO Shayne Ramsay invited ASTTBC's Executive Director, John Leech, to serve on their Industry & Consumer Advisory Council. The broad terms of reference for the Council is to provide advice to BC Housing and the Chief Executive Officer on all matters coming within member's areas of responsibility under the Homeowner Protection Act.

BC Housing hopes to draw on the collective expertise of Council to assist BC Housing in identifying new and emerging issues and opportunities in the residential construction industry and consumer protection. "This appointment represents a great opportunity to contribute to public policy in an area in which ASTTBC members play a key role," said Leech. The appointment is for 3 years.