

December 2012

Visit of Bruce Ralston, MLA to ASTTBC Office a Highlight for Staff

Bruce Ralston, MLA for Surrey-Whalley, (left) was warmly welcomed to the ASTTBC office (located in his riding) when he met with Executive Director John Leech and ASTTBC staff this past Fall.

Bruce Ralston was first elected to the Legislature in 2005 and re-elected in 2009. He serves as opposition critic for Finance and Public Accounts. He is a lawyer in Surrey, where he has operated his own law firm for 18 years.

"While this was a casual visit," said John, "I took the opportunity to review with Bruce the important work of ASTTBC Members and of the need to enhance awareness of, and support for, technology education and careers."