Cindy Harmel, AScT Receives Top in Technology Award

ASTTBC Executive Director John Leech, AScT, CAE presents Cindy Harmel, AScT with her Top in Technology Award

Cindy Harmel, AScT, is a recent recipient of ASTTBC's Top in Technology Award. Cindy is Director of Facilities and Maintenance at the Northwest Community College. "Our Top in Technology Awards are not given lightly" said John Leech. "They're earned through the highest level of professional performance, demonstrated leadership and excellence over time. We look for members who promote and use new technologies, mentor and role-model others, contribute to their communities and promote technology careers. Terrace can be extremely proud of Cindy. She's an exceptional technology professional by every measure we apply." Cindy is a previous ASTTBC award winner, winning the Women's Award for Leadership in Technology in 2009.
