

June 2013

Okanagan College Employee Honoured at ASTTBC AGM

Out-going ASTTBC President Bill MacPherson, ASCT (L) presenting Certificate of Appreciation to Allan Coyle

At the 2013 ASTTBC AGM the Association took the opportunity during the Luncheon to recognize a number of worthy supporters. A member of the Okanagan College Administration, Allan Coyle, Director of Public Affairs was recognized for promoting and marketing technology education for the past 15 years.

Allan's strong support of many ASTTBC partnership initiatives has excited students across the province about careers as technicians and technologists. His ongoing efforts help to grow ASTTBC recognized diploma and certificate programs throughout the College region from the Shuswap and Kootenays to the Boundary-Similkameen.

Allan's Award was mentioned in the recent Okanagan College Newsletter.