Dan Mooney, AScT, CPWI1 was presented with a Peter Allan, AScT Leadership Award from ASTTBC Executive Director John Leech, AScT, CAE at a recent City of Coquitlam Council Meeting. Coquitlam Mayor Richard Stewart and other city officials were in attendance for this special presentation.

Dan was recognized as an outstanding member of ASTTBC who has demonstrated exceptional leadership within the Association and the local community and by promoting careers in technology. Dan has served the Association in a number of capacities. First getting involved in 1985 when his employer at the time offered to pay his annual dues. Dan felt there was something he should give back to an organization that his employer valued so highly. Dan served ASTTBC as President from 1991 to 1993 and continues to serve on the FEAT Board; Nominations Committee and Awards Committee and is always willing to assist the Association in any way he can. Dan is also active in his community having joined the local volunteer (paid-on-call) Fire Department 7 years ago and has attended over 1,500 emergency response calls. He is an NFPA Certified 1st Class Fire Fighter, a member of the department's Critical Incident Stress Diffusing Team and last year was elected the President of local 'Brookwood - Hall 5' Fire Hall.
