

ASTTBC In The News – New Councillors Join Board

ASTTBC has two new Members of Council, and their appointments were picked up by local media.

Heather Andreychuk, AScT and David Sparanese, AScT, CPWI 3 joined the ASTTBC Council at the AGM held in May 2014. Heather is an active Member from Prince George, while David keeps busy in the Saanich/Victoria area. Each of them brings their significant insights and perspectives to the Council table.

The Prince George Free Press highlighted Heather's appointment, while David was featured in the BC Local News

"I am pleased to note the top notch talent ASTTBC attracts to the ASTTBC Council," said President Dave Rutherford. "As a self-regulating professional association ASTTBC has been incorporated by Government to serve and protect the public interest. It is a significant responsibility requiring the dedication of the governing Council. I am confident the team will be enhanced with the expertise of the new Council members.