Hon John Yap Supports ASTTBC's Strategic Direction Report

Honourable John Yap, Minister of Advanced Education, Innovation & Technology and Minister Responsible for Multiculturalism was unable to attend ASTTBC's recent launch of the Strategic Direction for Technology Education and Skills in British Columbia Report.

In a letter sent to Executive Director John Leech the Minister stated "The launch of this paper is significant as I understand that it provides information of interest to all those concerned with technology education and skills in our province."

John Leech acknowledged the receipt of the letter at the launch on January 29th and thanked the Minister for his support and best wishes.
