Science World Tweets & Profiles ‘Everyday Science’ Video

The 'Everyday Science' music video commissioned by ASTTBC and created by The Kerplunks was released at the ASTTBC Technology Awards & Recognition Celebration on November 3, 2012 as part of National Technology Week (NTW).

Science World profiled the video on their web site during NTW. "We thank Science World for their considerable efforts to promote science and technology throughout BC," said Jason Jung, AScT, Manager, Member and Program Development and ASTTBC staff person responsible for NTW.
