

April 2012

Former ASTTBC Editor Displays Photography

Ted Nodwell who recently retired as Editor of ASTT NEWS, was selected as one of three featured photographers for Working World, a photo exhibit that explores cultural diversity in the workplace. The exhibit runs until May 30, 2012 at the Museum of Vancouver, in the free community display area downstairs.

Ted served over 20 years with ASTTBC in various positions including time as Deputy Executive Director.
<http://museumofvancouver.ca/exhibitions/exhibit/working-world-diversity-and-employment>