

DEVELOPMENT ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGIST

Grow your career in one of the best places on earth. Forget the long commute. Kayak or walk on the waterfront at sunrise, put in an honest day's work, and still have plenty of time for a bike ride or round of golf before sunset. Fill your weekends with wine tours, hiking, and mountain biking, downhill or cross country skiing, or boating. Or enjoy one of the many campgrounds within less than an hour's drive from home. In fact, we know a few people who commute from the campground, work a full shift, and are back at the RV barbecuing burgers by the beach at half past five!

If you are a motivated and dynamic individual and thrive as being part of an enthusiastic team, please consider this opportunity to join us as a Development Engineering Technologist.

POSTION DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

The Development Engineering Technologist provides technical review and assessment on multifaceted land use applications such as subdivision, OCP and zoning bylaw amendments, development permits and building permits. Responds to requests for information or technical assistance from consulting firms, land developers or external agencies related to subdivision or development of land. The successful candidate will demonstrate good knowledge of engineering design, strong customer services skills and the ability to communicate established policies and procedures with tact and discretion and thorough understanding of the Works and Services Bylaw.

WHO IS THE IDEAL CANDIDATE?

- Grade 12 education, plus a diploma in Civil Engineering Technology, or equivalent combination of education and experience;
- A member of, or eligibility for full membership in, the Applied Science Technologist and Technicians Association of BC as an AScT or CTech;
- A minimum of 3 years design and inspection experience in the field of Municipal Engineering;
- Class 5 Drivers License
